JOHN WITTMAN THE TAILOR

MISS MONIE BOWEY,

No. 38 Perry Street,

DETROIT, MICHIGAN.

A couple of winters ago I slipped on a frozen sidewalk and fell flat on my back. On being examined I found that I had sustained internal injuries which laid me up for more than two months. After that I noticed that I had pains in the back and groin which I never had before. I doctored and doctored for several months but as the pains increased instead of growing better I decided that I was not having the right treatment. Reading in the papers of the wonderful cures performed by Wine of Cardui I wrote to one of the parties and received a very satisfactory reply and I immediately sent for some. In a very short time I felt generally better and after seven weeks faithful use I was once more well and strong. I have never had a sick hour since and I daily bless your splendid medicine.

Miss Monie Bowey.

Wine of Cardui makes women more womanly by curing their weakness and making them stronger. Wine of Cardui cured Miss Bowey. As a medicine for all women in every trying period of their lives can you think of a better medicine for yourself, your sister, your daughter or your mother? Can you think of a more acceptable present to give your friend than a bottle of this medicine which will bring her health and happiness? You are suffering? Your duty is to rid yourself of this pain. If your daughter, mother, sister or friend is sick and in need of relief, your duty is equally great to them. Many women, now well, owe their lives to friends who brought them Wine of Cardui.

Wine of Cardui is adapted to women at any age in any walk of life. For the working woman it gives her strength for her tasks and better treatment than a doctor for very small cost. Your druggist will sell you a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui. Secure the medicine today. Take it in the privacy of your home. Relief will come to you as surely as you take it.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

PRESENTED BY PAYNE COURTROOM CROWDED

Sweeping Postoffice Investigation Has Been Published.

SHOWS BIG SCANDAL

They Are Alleged to Have Occurred During the Administration of Postmaster General Smith and Show Frauds.

Washington, June 18.—Postmaster General Payne has made public the reply of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Bristow to the charge of Seymour W. Tulloch, former cashier of the Washington City postoffice, regarding the irregularities in the postal administration, and also reports of inspection and investigation of the Washington postoffice by inspectors between June 30, 1899, and July 31, 1900, together with the transcript of the Tulloch charges made some years ago and the conclusions thereon reached by Postmaster General Emory Smith.

These papers constitute by far the most significant documents yet made public as a result of the sweeping postal investigation. The reports show the existence of many irregularities during the period involved. The inspector who investigated the irregularities reports that the files of the postoffice cashier show direct orders from superior authority for the disbursement of all the questionable items cited. The inspector urged "that the responsibility for the many illegal appointments, the payment of two salaries to one and the same person, and the disbursement of thousands of dollars, for which practically no service was performed, should be placed where it properly belongs and the many abuses corrected." In a summary of the several reports, the postmaster general says:

"The charge of Mr. Tulloch is in its essence against President McKinley and Postmaster General Smith. President McKinley is no longer living; Postmaster General Smith, who carried out President McKinley's policy, has answered for himself. With regard to the present management of the Washington postoffice and the conduct of any and all men charged with wrongdoing who have been in the postal service under the present administration, a thorough and searching investigation is now being made."

The postmaster general says: "It will be seen that the whole subject was taken up by Postmaster General Smith and investigated by him. At the same time matters referred to in the charge of affecting the payment of bills, accounts and financial dealings generally, were under investigation by the controller of the treasury, and all the expenditures referred to were allowed by the auditor and controller, with the exception of $160."

Mr. Payne quotes from the recently published reply of Mr. Smith, and adds that these papers are now published "in order to complete the public understanding of a matter, a large part of which has already been published. The papers are filed without action, for the reason that they relate to the business of a prior administration. The subject matter in the complaint is four years old, and all action thereunder was closed over two years ago."

Metcalf Dismissed.

Washington, June 18.—As a result of alleged indiscretion in matters pertaining to the award of contracts for printing the money order forms of the government, James T. Metcalf, for many years superintendent of the money order system of the postoffice department, was removed from office by the inspector general. A full investigation of the case will be made later.

MUST AVENGE.

Russian Official Note Calls Upon Peter to Severely Punish Regicides. St. Petersburg, June 18.—An official note published in the Gazette recognizes Prince Peter Karageorgievitch as king of Serbia and welcomes his accession. In brief the note declares that it is incumbent upon King Peter to avenge the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga, and expresses the conviction that he will know how to severely punish the regicides, whose misdeeds should not be visited on the entire Serbian nation or army. The note adds that it would be dangerous to the tranquility of Serbia to leave the crime go unpunished.

Many in Attendance on Last Day of the Murder Case,

BYRD WAS EMPHATIC

He Says the Jury Should Make a Sacrifice, as Captain Ewen Did, in the Interest of Justice and Sustain the Right.

Jackson, Ky., June 18.—There was another "circus crowd" here to hear the closing arguments in the case of Curtis Jett and Thomas White. The pleadings of Judge I. French, John D. O'Neal and B. B. Golden for the defense and Captain William L. Hurst and Thomas Marcum for the prosecution Wednesday and that night attracted so much attention that all wanted to hear Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd close the case. The mothers of the defendants, widows of feud victims and other ladies were again present.

While all men entering the courtroom have been searched every day for concealed weapons, extra precautions were taken by the soldiers, as there were grave apprehensions as to what might happen with such a crowd in town after the trial had been concluded. If it is a hung jury, stated Governor Beckham, who has State Inspector Hines here looking on, the next trial will not be held in Breathitt county nor will Judge Redwine sit in the other cases. Inspector Hines came back to investigate an alleged attempt to bribe Witness Ewen. Ewen had five witnesses to attempt to bribe him and make threats of assassination and destruction of his property. There are grave fears for some of the newspaper men. Two correspondents left Wednesday and their papers have been sent new men so they will not be known to assassins. It is dangerous for one man to remain here long if his paper has a circulation in the town.

When court convened B. M. Golden concluded for the defense and Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd made his argument. Byrd has the reputation of being a fearless prosecutor. When this case opened he announced that he proposed to do his duty, mattering not who was hurt. Byrd has purchased him a home at Winchester, Ky., and will remove his family to that place as soon as these cases are over. Byrd spoke of how Ewen had to be protected by soldiers, fearing that he would be assassinated if he ventured from his home unprotected; how he had been forced to remain under the protection of the soldiers since the trial. The defense objected frequently to statements and in some instances was sustained and the prosecutor reprimanded by the judge. O'Neal again objected to a statement of Byrd that a motion had been made to dismiss the jury, which was sustained, and Byrd proceeded.

Byrd asked the jury to be willing, if necessary, to make the same sacrifice that Captain Ewen had made for justice. Raising his hand aloft and shaking it threateningly toward two prominent men who sat in court, he said: "I want to give warning to you and all of your followers that your bloodthirsty duels must stop in Breathitt county. I leave this county and its people. God knows they have suffered enough. God knows the day has got to come when arch-assassins, men who are controlling the powers behind Jett and Whites, will be exposed to the world and either sent to prison or to the noose."

With clenched fists and shaking with emotion, Byrd walked toward the jury and said: "Gentlemen, you are on trial as well as Jett and White, and you must answer to the bar of public opinion as well as to the bar of a Breathitt county criminal court. You've got to do your duty or be pilloried by public opinion."

Byrd followed the testimony with merciless precision and lauded Ewen as a man whose superior in manhood does not live. He was fierce in his denunciation of certain witnesses and others. The case went to the jury at 11:30 o'clock.

WOMAN LIBERATED.

Mrs. Wimple, Charged With Poisoning Her Husband, Set Free.

New York, June 18.—After twenty-seven years behind prison bars Mrs. Emma Wimple is free, through a pardon granted her a few days ago by Governor Odell. When the woman was escorted from the Matteawan hospital for the insane to the railway station at Newburg she appeared to be completely dazed at the strange sights to her. Mrs. Wimple was sentenced to life imprisonment for poisoning her husband. She entered Sing Sing a pretty girl of eighteen and emerged to liberty a gray-haired woman of forty-five. Fifteen months ago she was found to be losing her reason and was taken to the asylum from which she has just been liberated. Apparently, she will soon entirely recover. Mrs. Wimple poisoned her husband as the outcome of a love affair. A young man who was tried as her accomplice was also sentenced for life, but died in prison many years ago.

TRAGEDY AVERTED.

Two of a Poker Playing Party Have a Lively Encounter.

New York, June 18.—Some of the passengers who have just returned from Europe on the steamer Kaiser Wilhelm II. says a tragedy was narrowly averted two days before the liner reached port. The affair grew out of a card game. The names of the two men involved have not been learned. It was after midnight when the attention of persons in the smoking room was attracted by three men playing poker. One of the players who had called a large raise suddenly threw down his hand, jumped up and struck the winner, whom he called "a cheat."

In another moment the two men were locked together and struggling back and forth about the room. Tumbling over a chair, both fell heavily. The smaller man managed to gain his freedom. As he jumped to his feet he reached for a weapon, but on the instant that he drew out a revolver the larger man dashed out on deck. Parties stopped the trouble.

DIVERSIFICATION.

Wheelock is not in Brazos county, but it is just across the line in Robertson, and what farmers can do over there they can do in this county. C. C. Tribble of Wheelock brought to Bryan Tuesday a load of fine large silver skin onions, as fine as are grown anywhere on earth. The samples brought to the Eagle office measured 18 inches in circumference, and are pure white. Mr. Tribble had but a small patch, less than a quarter acre, from which he sold over $12 worth. He says James Holloman had two acres of these onions, from which he gathered 15,000 pounds. At 2 1/2 cents, this brought him $375. Mitchell Bros. of Franklin sold the product of one acre of these onions for $160.

Mr. Tribble says the growing of these fine onions required remarkably little work.

The Eagle reporter interviewed Prof. Sanderson, holding the chair of Entomology in the A. & A. College, and had an expression from him to the effect that he will meet with the Brazos county farmers at Steep Hollow Friday, June 19th, and talk about the boll weevil.

Prof. Kyle of the College is also expected. Other good speakers have consented to come, to talk about diversification, which is the hope of our country. This will be one of our best meetings, and nobody who can do so should neglect to attend.

SHE WILH NOT LEAVE.

Mrs. Ewen Says She Will Remain for at Least a Month.

Jackson, Ky., June 18.—B. J. Ewen the principal witness in the Marcum murder case, with most of his family is at Lexington, ninety-three miles from Jackson. He is now considered out of the reckoning, but there are other witnesses for the prosecution who are considered in danger.

Major Embury Allen, who is now in command of the troops here, earnestly advised Mrs. B. J. Ewen to leave Jackson. She has taken an active part in accumulating evidence against the men who burned her husband's hotel and who are directly connected with the powerful faction in Breathitt county. Major Allen expressed the belief that her life was in danger. Mrs. Ewen's bravery and courage have frequently been shown and it was but the expected when she replied:

"I will stay here until our interests are properly protected" and our contracts fulfilled. If they want to kill me they will find me here for at least a month."

No woman has yet been ordered killed by the feudists of Breathitt county. If such an order is issued in this instance it is the unanimous opinion that there will be an uprising against the men who would be at once suspected and demand many lives for the killing or the placing in jeopardy of any woman.

A hung jury is expected because of the alleged attitude of two of the members. As the case draws to a close alarm among citizens because of the probability of troops being withdrawn is manifested. The assassination of every person who has become exposed as antagonistic to the ring is feared. Arson may substitute assassination where the latter is for any reason not expedient.

Even newspaper correspondents are believed to be in danger and some predict that some of them will never leave Breathitt county alive. One of them received an anonymous letter signed "A Feminine Admirer," in which he was told that his assassination had been ordered and warning him to get out of the town before Thursday night. Everyone feels that a verdict or failure to return a verdict is going to precipitate a crisis and there is apprehension that bloodshed is coming. Jackson people are not easily alarmed and they point to a series of crimes that shock civilization as defense against the suspicion that they may be hysterical in their dread for what they believe is to follow the removal of troops should the real culprits never be reached. If the defendants should be found guilty it is predicted that the members of the jury and even the circuit judge will be in danger.

For the first time in eighteen months Police Judge Cardwell tried an offender Wednesday morning. Cardwell is a Cardwell-Cockrill partisan and like the late J. B. Marcum, up to the time the militia took possession of the town he had been a prisoner in his own home, having received repeated threat of assassination.

The prisoners brought before him were Lee Gay and Lewis Johnson, known as henchmen from Perry county of the dominant faction. They were charged with assaulting Gay Haddicks, who had been a witness before the grand jury against Crawford and Tharp, charged with having set fire to Ewen's hotel. Cardwell fined Gay $9 and costs and Johnson $25 and gave him ten days in jail for carrying concealed weapons.

Arrives at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., June 18.—J. B. Ewen arrived here Wednesday, accompanied by his little daughter, Mattie, and twenty soldiers under Sergeant Swope. He was met at the depot by friends and taken to the Gordon's home. Captain Ewen said: "I can work at almost anything and will seek employment in Lexington, Winchester or Louisville. I had contracts with Hargis Bros. involving several thousand dollars, which, of course, I will lose now."

Shreveport Wins Team Prize.

Shreveport, La., June 18.—The final day of the annual tournament of the Mississippi Valley Trap Shooters' association was marked by magnificent shooting. The scores, except in the team event, were close, and 150 trap shooters participated in the day's programme. Shreveport won the team prize with seventy-three birds out of a possible seventy-five. New Orleans was second, with sixty-four birds, and Shreveport's No. 2 team, Vicksburg and Greenville tied for the third prize with sixty-three birds each. Memphis was fourth, with sixty-two birds.

BOUND OVER.

Alleged Murderers of Berry Family Are Held Without Bail.

St. Francis, Kan., June 18.—Chauncey Dewey, Clyde Wilson and W. J. McBride, charged with the murder of the Berry family two weeks ago, were bound over to the next session of the district court without bail. They will be taken to Goodland, where they will await trial. They will be escorted across the country to Goodland by the Osborne militia company, which has been guarding them since their arrest. Sheriff McCullough thinks he can protect his prisoners if the militia help him take them to the jail at Goodland. In spite of the threats made by the settlers.

At the conclusion of the evidence given by the state, the attorneys for the Deweys, announced that the defense would not present any evidence fearing that their cause might be injured thereby. Justice Hall then ordered the men committed to jail at Goodland. Their trial will be held early in the fall.

All Differences Settled.

Chicago, June 18.—An amicable adjustment of the hotel and restaurant strike has been reached and the strikers will return to work after two weeks of idleness. All differences between employer and employees are to be settled by arbitration.

PETER'S MANIFESTO.

Says His Motto Is: "For the Sacred Cross and Cherished Liberty."

Geneva, June 18.—King Peter telegraphed the Belgrade the following manifesto to be proclaimed to the Servians, the substance of which was cabled to the Associated Press June 15:

"Thanks to the favor of God and the will of the people, I am called to the throne of my ancestors. I submit myself to the popular decision, and to-day ascend the throne of Serbia. I consider it to be my first duty to thank God for the favor accorded me, and I express the hope that the powers will hail my succession as an event which will give Serbia an era of repose and order.

"I give my word to respect the rights acquired by all.

"I will be the protector of the people. I call upon the heads of the church and military and civil functionaries to retain their functions and execute them conscientiously.

"I declare that I banish from memory all acts committed during the past forty years bearing upon me.

"Every honest Servian will find under my reign protection for his moral and material life.

"The motto of my dynasty is: 'For the sacred cross and cherished liberty.' It is with that motto, assured of the attachment of the army and church that I ascend the throne as Peter I, king of Serbia."

Seal of Approval.

Belgrade, June 18.—The army regards the czar's telegram as putting the seal of approval on the deeds of the officers. Up to the present the diplomatic corps has officially ignored the provisional government but the Servian officials express the conviction that the powers generally are bound to follow Russia's lead.

IS CHIEF.

General Matos Heads a Revolt Against President Castro.

Port of Spain, June 18.—A Venezuelan government agent, who arrived at La Guaira, Venezuela, from Ciudad de Bolivar, reported that General Rolando, the only lieutenant of General Matos, the revolutionary leader, who heads an army which numbers about 2000 men and is stationed at Ciudad de Bolivar and who refused to follow General Matos in his flight from Venezuela to the island of Curacao, has proclaimed himself chief of a new revolution against President Castro. Rolando, who has guns and ammunition, is looked upon as likely to offer a determined resistance to the Venezuelan government forces if the latter attack him. The United States, France and Germany have considerable interests in the Orinoco district and at Ciudad de Bolivar.

FOURTEEN KILLED.

Terrible Result of an Explosion in the Woolwich Arsenal.

London, June 18.—Fourteen men were killed and thirteen injured by an explosion in the lydlite factory of Woolwich arsenal. Several victims were literally blown to pieces. The building was completely wrecked. The roof was blown off and the interior collapsed. The explosion is thought to have been caused by the blowing up of a shell. There were many pathetic scenes about the gates of the great arsenal, where thousands of relatives of the employees besieged the officials for information.

Attacked by Jews.

St. Petersburg, June 18.—Kroush-evan, a notorious Jew baiter and editor of the anti-Semitic organ in Kishineff, the Bessarabian's articles in which are believed to have been largely responsible for the massacre of the Jews in Kishineff, was attacked by a party of Jews in the streets of St. Petersburg. He was stabbed in the neck by one of the Jews. The wound is not believed to be fatal. His assailant was captured and proved to be a former student of the polytechnic school at Kieff.

Will Do His Best.

New York, June 18.—Minister Wilson called again at the ministry of public works to ask the government to send representatives to the St. Louis exposition, says a Herald dispatch from Valparaiso, Chile. The minister thanked Mr. Wilson, saying that he would do his utmost to comply with the request.

Troops No Longer Needed.

Washington, June 18.—The latest information which the war department has received from General Baldwin concerning the situation at Morenci, Ariz., is to the effect that the troops were no longer necessary. General Baldwin, however, directed that a squadron of cavalry should make a practice march in the direction of Morenci.

Fifteen Thousand Spectators.

St. Louis, June 18.—The thirty-first national saengerfest of the North American Sangerbund opened in the Liberal Arts building at the World's fair grounds with 15,000 spectators. The programme included vocal solos, a mixed chorus of 6000 voices and a large orchestra.

HURRIEDLY LEFT.

Learned That Destruction of Lamar and Fannin Counties Was Predicted.

Paris, Tex., June 18.—A report gained current in the northwest part of Lamar county that a crazy negro in jail here has predicted the earth in Fannin and Lamar counties would sink and be swallowed up last Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

T. H. Maynard of this city, who has returned from Direct, in then orth-west corner of the county, says that on Saturday and Saturday night and Sunday a number of people living on Blue Prairie, Fannin county, and on Slough Creek, just over the line in this county, stored their provisions and crossed the river into the Territory, where they remained until the time for the predicted catastrophe to pass. The ferryman at Ragsdale informed him that the people came in wagons faster than he could put them across. The refugees began to return home Thursday morning.

SAP'S PROPOSAL.

It Will Extend to Brownsville Under Certain Conditions.

Austin, June 18.—The San Antonio and Aransas Pass railway has made a counter proposition to the railroad commission to the effect that if the commission will permit the bonds and stock to stand, the Sap will build to Brownsville within two years, and said bonds and stock to be credited on the extension under the stock and bond law by direction of the commission. In other words, allow the present bonds to remain instead of making a new issue on the Brownsville line. As the commission will give the Sap some three months to secure the bonds and stock for cancellation, under the order and acceptance filed by the road, in reference to the bonds alleged to have been illegally issued, in which reasonable time is requested, it will have ample time to consider the proposition before the bonds are destroyed. If it is agreed to, this acceptance will be necessarily suspended and the bonds remain.

BARGE FIGHT.

John Regan and Johnny Kelly Battle for Twenty Rounds to a Draw.

Memphis, June 18.—The first glove contest at Memphis for two years was held Wednesday night on an enormous barge floating in midstream on the Mississippi river. The fight was under the auspices of the Memphis Athletic club, "Doc" Holtum, manager. The inaugural fight in the floating coliseum was witnessed by a large crowd and resulted in a twenty round contest to a draw between John Regan of St. Louis and Johnny Kelly of Chicago, bantam weights.

The fight was fast, clean and hotly contested with Kelly having a shade the best of it throughout the open fighting and Regan easily superior in the exchange of blows in the clinches.

Since the city has placed boxing under the ban, almost two years ago, there has not been a contest here. It is only made possible at present by the employment of the barge, which has been fitted up by the Athletic club and has a seating capacity of 2000 persons.

The main event was preceded by a ten round draw between local aspirants.
